

Tuesday 20th

Executive Meeting

Began to tidy office, which was still suffering in the aftermath of Freshers' Week

Meeting to discuss planning for Disabled Students' Week

Council Meeting

Wednesday 21st

Gave an interview in response to Residents' Associations once again making claims about the nasty students

Wrote a speech to second the pro-choice motion

Designed and printed flyers and posters for next week's anti fascism meeting

Attended the General Meeting that never was Created the Facebook event for the meeting on fascism

Spoke to Ali M about why there wasn't going to be a hustings for NUS candidates... There is now!

Thursday 22nd

Sent publicity emails for the anti fascist meeting

Investigated anti-burglary impact alarms for doors and windows

Did another two interviews... Everyone seems to want to speak to me this week!

Wrote the blurb for the Advice Centre- to go on Union's new beer mats

Sorted training handbooks for Nightline

Started planning my student safety stall at the November Community Safety event being held in Ladybarn

Friday 23rd

All day Condom Seminar cancelled last minute, so little planned.

Spent some time informing everyone as best as I could that the anti fascist meeting was now cancelled (after being told that the speaker was now seriously ill in hospital). Bit gutted about this.

Arranged a meeting with Brendan Jones re pastoral care.

Spent the afternoon in Barnes Wallis holding my weekly North Campus sexual health drop in.

Monday 26th

Finished tidying office at last

Produced teaser poster "What's it got to do with me?" for Disabled Students' Week

Booked room and projector for film showing during Disabled Students' Week

Began writing Housing Guide

Approached Counselling service about holding workshops on Mental Health Day (combating stress, how to deal with procrastination, meditation etc.)

Spoke to NHS RUClear about day of mass Chlamydia testing in Students' Union end of November/beginning of December

Tuesday 27th

NUS Welfare Zone conference day 1: attended workshops about faith groups on campus, housing and crime. I also attended sessions on welfare services of the future and a housing debate with UNIPOL, Victoria Halls and others. Made a really useful contact from Salford.

Wednesday 28th

Zone conference day 2: Voted in NUS Welfare Committee elections. I went to the policy-making forums on student workers and health, as well as a session on contraception and abortion by the Family Planning Association (FPA).

Got back to the office shortly after 2pm- inundated with emails and voice messages. Booked a place on suicide training course.

+ CASEWORK!!!!!!
