

Monday

- Spent about 3 or 4 hours sorting out and on the rant wall at north campus. People seemed pleased that we were even there and some of the comments were really useful.
- Made poster and arrangements for film showing next week.
- Called back some people about women in the miners' strike meeting in November.
- Case work.

Tuesday

- Prepared some stuff for exec meeting and read all agenda items.
- Set up rant wall again in Union.
- Had a few students coming in at various points.
- Created facebook events for next week's film.
- Sent proposals for student parents to teaching and learning group secretary and contacted estates about breast feeding and baby changing.
- Attended council.

Wednesday

- Went to exec (3 hours!).
- Tried to get more speakers for challenging orthodoxies debate and contacted people about various other upcoming things.
- Planned first Riveters meeting.

Thursday

- Wrote up report on domestic abuse conference and started to explore sex discrimination act in relation to students (this needs further work).
- Exchanged emails with Ben from men's society.
- Wrote up report from abortion: decisions and dilemmas training and prepared some training materials.
- Prepared for and had the first Riveters meeting! There were about 30 people there, which is great. It went on a bit long as the men's society was discussed and Ben was there, which was really good and people appreciated that. It went on far too long but it was great to see so many people there, and so many people who want to do some feminist activism too. Woop!

Friday

- Wrote up minutes from Riveters and did all the things I was actioned to do
  - o write a letter to Sainsbury's Fallowfield asking them to move/remove their lads' mags and objectifying newspapers
  - o make new Platt Fields specific flyer for Riveters to distribute for Reclaim the Parks
  - o make new discussion topics on facebook for various upcoming stuff
  - o book Urbis Suffragette City Tour for next Wednesday
- Went to campaigns collective fair – well done Laura!
- Watched film to prepare for Monday.

Monday 5th October

- Did some postering for film showing tonight.
- Sent out weekly email to riveters and created facebook events for upcoming stuff.
- Sorted out general meeting motion on Reproductive Rights and Real Choice.
- Went out as a green bean!
- Did some events publicity.
- Showed my film, which had about 60/70 people there, everyone seemed to really like it and there was some good discussion afterwards. Phew!
